"Amen, amen, I say to you, when you were younger, you used to dress yourself and go where you wanted; but when you grow old, you will stretch out your hands, and someone else will dress you and lead you where you do not want to go." He said this signifying by what kind of death he would glorify God. And when he had said this, he said to him, "Follow me." - Jn 21:18-19

3RD SUNDAY OF EASTER

The one hundred fifty-three fish in today's Gospel have been the subject of much speculation over the years. For example, some say that one hundred fifty-three was the number of known fish species at the time, others that it was the number of countries known to exist. So one way to look at today's celebration is to see it as an invitation to spread the Good News to the whole known world. That is what the Church has done throughout history. Perhaps our prayer today can be to understand what our role is in that evangelizing mission.

States and provinces regulate fishing seasons within their own boundaries. For some species, the fishing season is open all year long. For others, there is only a brief time that the fish can be legally taken. The season for sturgeon spearing in the upper Midwest can last just a couple of days depending on where the spearing takes place and when the limit imposed by regulation is reached. According to data collected in 2011 by the US Census Bureau, over thirty-three million Americans go fishing. In that year they spent nearly $42 billion on fishing activities including trips, equipment, and licenses. The number of people going fishing jumped by eleven percent from 2006, making it one of the most popular outdoor activities.

Peter's fishing trip in this weekend's Gospel is not quite as involved as some trips that modern day fishermen might take. Since he was a fisherman by trade, he likely walked out of his house, grabbed a few of his buddies, and went out in the boat for the night hoping to make a good catch. While there was always preparation to be done (mending the nets, repairing the boat, etc.), from the Gospel story it seems that Peter's decision to go fishing was pretty spontaneous. It was near dawn when Jesus showed up and they caught a tremendous amount of fish.

Any avid fisherman is always ready to go out and fish. Once you're out there, it could be just the right moment to pull in a lot of fish. Like a fisherman, we never quite know when the moment may come to "catch" someone for Christ. As Christians, we always have to be prepared to tell the story of who Jesus is for us, not in any kind of "preachy" way, but by living our lives as kind and loving people. The witness that we give by our example is the only kind of net we need to attract others to the Lord.

EDDIE QUETTE SAYS:

Please allow enough time so that you arrive at church and are seated before the priest and other liturgical ministers begin the opening procession up the center aisle. At the end of Mass, the final hymn is our final prayer. Please stay and sing our final prayer. It is especially discourteous to leave before the priest and the other liturgical ministers have completed the closing procession down the center aisle. Arriving and leaving Mass at the proper time will enhance everyone's worship experience. Fathers Stan, Slawek, and Wojciech and the other liturgical ministers thank you for your cooperation.

CREATING ONE, HOLY, CATHOLIC AND APOSTOLIC CHURCH IN MANVILLE

As you may know, Bishop Bootkoski has decreed the parishes of Christ the King and Sacred Heart be merged to create one, stronger, more vibrant Catholic community in Manville. According to the decree, the new parish-to-be is expected to “function as the territorial parish for the Borough of Manville, with a special apostolate for area Catholics of Polish descent,” and will operate as one unified parish with two worship sites (i.e., the Churches of Christ the King and Sacred Heart).

The physical merger process will kick off with a Joint Parish Information Session on Sunday, April 28, 2013, from 1:00 p.m. - 2:30 p.m. in the CTK School Auditorium.

All Christ the King and Sacred Heart parishioners and their families are cordially invited to join Fr. Stan, his fellow clergy, and the staffs of both parishes as they begin to explore the pathway to a successful and Spirit-led parish merger. Information will include: an overview of the merger process; the anticipated timeline and decisions to be considered during the process; an introduction to the formal teams who will be working to help implement the merger; and Fr. Stan’s vision for the new parish-to-be, which is expected to begin life and open officially on January 1, 2014.

FROM THE PASTOR: "Do you love me...? Follow me." (John 21:16, 19)

Jesus instructed Peter to lead the Church, and Jesus also tells Peter about the high price he would have to pay. Good stewards recognize that to follow Jesus is a difficult journey requiring great sacrifice. They also know that Jesus will be with them through their joys and sorrows along the way.

Fr. Stan
