Someone in the crowd said to Jesus, "Teacher, tell my brother to share the inheritance with me." He replied to him, "Friend, who appointed me as your judge and arbitrator?" Then he said to the crowd, "Take care to guard against all greed, for though one may be rich, one's life does not consist of possessions." - Lk 12:13-15

18TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

My friends, we gather here at God's invitation to give thanks and praise for the great things that God has done for us and given to us. Yet we must acknowledge that these gifts, no matter how wonderful, are but fleeting. Our eyes and our desires must always be focused on God's reign, both here and hereafter. As we worship together today, let us pray for God to help us to grow rich in the things that matter to God.

In fiscal 2012, lottery sales in the United States averaged approximately $250 per person. Forty-three states and the District of Columbia accounted for that $78 billion in sales. It was in March 2012 that the largest prize to date ($656 million) was split between three winners. While it is clear that many people enjoy playing the lottery recreationally, a question that is often asked is, "What does someone do with all that money?" Of course, that particular problem has not seemed to bother those who play regularly. Indeed, the largest jackpots, far from being a deterrent, end up provoking an even greater number of players, who seem intent on turning a single dollar into a large fortune.

The Gospel this weekend offers a perspective on the material world. While possessions are needed, Jesus says, "One's life does not consist of possessions" (Lk 12:15). This comment by Jesus is not something new to any of us. We have heard this all before. But we also know that there is wisdom in storing up for ourselves. As a matter of fact, saving for the future is an act of personal responsibility. We are constantly told to save for retirement, to have a rainy-day fund, to set aside something for a vacation instead of going into debt to take one. All of these actions are so we don't become overly dependent on the social fabric and cause an undue burden on others.

There is a difference between having a sufficiency and having an excess. When our desire for an excess outstrips our reasonableness and our need, then we are flirting with greed, the very thing that the Gospel warns against. Yes, we may work hard, and save for the future. We may even win the lottery. But when we have more than we need the Lord expects that we use it not just for ourselves but also for others. What we do with the blessings we have makes all the difference.

SACRED HEART PARISH SUMMER FESTIVAL IS NOW HISTORY

For some time to come, we will be involved in the tabulating of receipts and expenditures; but in the meantime we hasten to extend our deep respect, admiration and gratitude to the many men, women, and children whose sacrifices of time and energy made the 45th Annual Parish Summer Festival such a tremendous success. Without the effort of so many, we would not have been able to manage this undertaking. We are, most of all, grateful to Almighty God for the good week He blessed us with and to all our parishioners and friends who added to its success by their attendance. MAY GOD BLESS YOU A HUNDREDFOLD!

Wielkie słowa podziękowania kierujemy na ręce tych wszystkich parafian, którzy czynnie włączyli się w przygotowanie i prowadzenie naszego karnawału. W sposób szczególny dziękuję Panom, którzy tak chętnie i LICZNIE wstawili się do rozkładania stołów i krzeseł. Dziękuję Paniom i Panom pracującym podczas festiwalu za poświęcenie, dobre słowo i optymizm. Oprócz ciężkiej pracy wszyscy bawili się dobrze i pracowali dzielnie razem. Ciszę się, że tak wielu młodych parafian włączyło się w tym roku w przygotowanie i przeprowadzenie naszego festiwalu. Dziękuję Panu Bogu za dobry tydzień oraz wszystkim tym, którzy nawiedzili nas w czasie tego parafialnego święta. Bóg Zapłać za wszelką okazaną dobroć.

Thank you to all the wonderful volunteers who helped out at this year's festival.

Tribute To A Volunteer

*The more you give,
The more you get.
The more you laugh,
The less you fret.*

*The more you do unselfishly,
The more you live abundantly.
The more of everything you share,
The more you find that others care.
The more you love, the more you'll find
That life is good and friends are kind.*

On Tuesday August 13th - Come join us at the Shrine of the Immaculate Heart of Mary, Washington, NJ to celebrate the 96th Anniversary of the Apparitions of Our Lady of Fatima. In 1917 she appeared to three shepherd children to request that they spread devotion to the rosary in order to end the war and bring peace. The Most Reverend Frank J. Caggiano, Auxiliary Bishop of the Diocese of Brooklyn, will be the Main Celebrant. Confessions are available at 10:30 a.m. Rosary Procession begins at 12:00 noon, followed by Guest Speaker Reverend Clement J. Machado, Holy Mass is at 1:00. The celebration ends with our traditional Fatima Farewell. For more information visit our website: www.wafusa.org, or call (908) 689-1700.

We ask you for your prayers for the health of those in need, especially: Cecelia Bladzinski, John Bontempo, Halina Cichon, Vincent Chiusano, Mary Fromosky, Helen Gazo, Julia Gekosky, Dorothy Gluch, Maryann Hughes, Stefanie Incao, Raul Jaime, Estelle Kaminski, Stephen Kenosky, Theresa Kraska, Wiktoria Lach, Josephine Martens, Gloria Massarelli, John Nieliwocki, Hunter Norz, Dolores Novicky, Steven Pirello, Robert Petsko, John Scanlon, Albert Stanski, Richard Suydam, Maria Svaglinac, Zdzislaw Szczepanski, Cindy Weigel, Vincent Zujkowski, and Maria Zurawiecki.

God of all consolation give life and health to our sisters and brothers for whom we pray in your Holy Name. Amen.

FROM THE PASTOR: Take care to guard against all greed, for though one may be rich, one’s life does not consist of possessions.” Luke 12:15

The Gospel message today is so contrary to our modern culture where advertising continually tries to convince us that our value lies in the things we possess. Jesus showed us that our true value lies in the way we live our lives. He challenges us to not store up or hoard material possessions, but rather to live a grateful and generous lifestyle. Fr. Stan
