21ST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Brothers and sisters, as we gather in God's name today, we will be reminded that many besides us have been invited into the kingdom of the Lord. We who bear the name of Christian must live in such a way that we too will be recognized and welcomed into the heavenly banquet hall. May our prayer today be for welcoming hearts for all of God's people wherever we meet them.

State fairs are famous for their many contests. The best cow, the best pig, the best sheep are hailed as "Grand Champions." The best cake, the best raspberry jam, the finest pickles, and the most delectable pie are awarded blue ribbons. Cheese and butter, honey and maple syrup, fruits and vegetables, agricultural products of all kinds win prizes of distinction based on criteria for their category. Handcrafted items are also entered into competition, and ribbons won displayed on the home mantle. While almost anyone can enter one of these contests, there is only one blue ribbon, only one grand champion.

In Sunday's Gospel we hear Jesus respond to a question posed to him about the number who will be saved. One of the tenets of our faith concerns the universal salvific will of God, that is, God wants everyone to be saved. But God has also given humankind free will, meaning that people have a choice in accepting God's invitation to salvation. For those of us who are believers, it can be difficult to comprehend that someone would not want to enjoy eternal life. But that is a choice that God offers, and the Gospel this Sunday reinforces the idea that being saved is more than just a casual acquaintance with Jesus.

Like a competition at the state fair, there are criteria for entering the kingdom of God. They are not mysterious. There is not some secret code that we need to know. What is needed is clearly spelled out just like the rules for entering a pie or jar of canned peaches. We need to love God. We need to listen to his word. We need to be compassionate toward others. We need to love our neighbor. The difference between these criteria and entering a state fair contest is that there is always more than one grand champion in the Christian life. Everyone who follows faithfully gets a blue ribbon.

THE SECOND COLLECTION taken up after Holy Communion will be for CHRIST THE KING SCHOOL. Please be generous.

CARITAS (The Sharing Ministry) - Bring your food donations, (non-perishable, non-expired, no glass items) to enable our ministry to continue helping local families & individuals. Especially at this time of year, think of the children beginning school and try to donate breakfast and lunch items for kids; i.e., cereals, pancake mixes, syrup, single packaged fruits, peanut butter, pudding & jello cups, crackers, etc...we are especially low on food items & gift cards right now. If you would like to donate gift cards, we are sure many children will be in need of school supplies as well. Also, watch for a Food Drive to be held in front of the Manville Quick Chek coming soon.

FROM THE PASTOR: “For behold, some are last who will be first and some are first who will be last.”

Luke 13:30

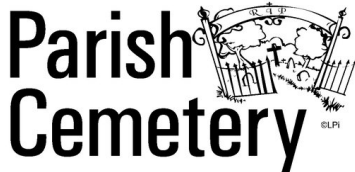

Our standards in our society are so different from God’s standards. We often rate or rank people by what they have, how powerful they are, or how successful they are. Jesus reminds us that God will not judge us by the same earthly standards.
