4th Sunday in Ordinary Time

As we gather here today at the invitation of our gracious God, love seems to be the word. We hear Saint Paul's beautiful hymn to love, and about Jeremiah and Jesus, whose love for God and God's people is so profound that they endure many hardships to proclaim that message. Let us take time today to praise our loving God for this opportunity to come to know more deeply the love of Christ. Then let us pray for a way to respond by showing that love in our own lives.

People who play the lottery are always hoping for that big chance to win a super jackpot. Against all odds (literally!) they imagine winning millions. After all, someone has to win. It might as well be me. It's almost contradictory that lotteries have become part of state budgeting, when many Americans believe in the values of hard work and earning a living as opposed to the gratuitous windfall that a lottery would give someone. State income from lotteries exceeds that of tobacco excise taxes, but is less than the license fees states collect on motor vehicles. Everybody who wants something for nothing is involved. For the outlay of a miniscule amount of cash, a player dreams of an immense return. And the state gets a bonus to its income without having to tax its citizens more.

In today's Gospel, the people of Nazareth are acting a bit like lottery hopefuls, with high expectations for a significant payout with the investment of very little. They've heard about all the great things that Jesus did in Capernaum, and now they are expecting to cash in on the local boy made good. Surely he has got to work some astounding miracles here.

But Jesus is not a lottery ticket. And faith in him is not a something for nothing proposition in which all the benefits are reaped with very little investment. As we will learn as we read from Luke's Gospel in the weeks and months ahead, Jesus is headed on a journey to Jerusalem. His destiny lies in that city where he will suffer and die, and finally, through his resurrection, he will usher in the era of the Spirit that is poured out on the church. For us, following Jesus is a lifelong journey to our own Jerusalem in which we empty ourselves in the service of others. It is no lottery that we hope to win, but a share in Christ's journey through death to resurrection.

When the people in the synagogue heard this, they were all filled with fury. They rose up, drove him out of the town, and led him to the brow of the hill on which their town had been built, to hurl him down headlong. But Jesus passed through the midst of them and went away. - Lk 4:28-30

According to Church teaching, marriage between a man and a woman—in a manner unlike any other relationship—makes a unique and irreplaceable contribution to the common good of society, especially through the procreation and education of children. The union of husband and wife becomes, over a lifetime, a great good for themselves, their family, communities and societies. In short, marriage is a gift to be cherished and protected.

Christ the King School Basket Auction Tickets

Admission tickets for our Pot 'O Gold Basket Auction on March 1st are available for sale in the Christ the King School office starting 2/4/13. You can purchase tickets any day that school is open by calling 908-526-1339 and arranging a pickup time.

Tickets are $20. This admission entitles the bearer to one sheet of 25 raffle tickets for non-premium prizes, the door prize drawings, and refreshments. PLEASE PURCHASE ONLY ONE ADMISSION TICKET PER PERSON ATTENDING. Purchasing more than one ticket does not gain you anything; (an admission ticket costs more than the free raffle sheet), and it eliminates a spot for another guest. The auction is a LIMITED SALES event. As in the past, we anticipate that it will be sold out prior to March 1st, with no ticket availability at the door!

We are again offering pre-event sales of discounted value packages of basket raffle sheets. Package A includes 2 non-premium sheets and 1 premium sheet for $25; and Package B includes 2 premium sheets and 1 non-premium sheet for $30. These tickets will be available for pick-up at the auction. Additional raffle sheets (for both premium and non-premium prizes) and packages, grand prize tickets, and 50/50 tickets will be sold at the auction. Advance sale packages must be purchased by Friday, February 15th to allow time for processing. After that date, all packages will need to be purchased the night of the event.

Donations for the auction are also still being accepted. Any questions, please contact Stacy Snell at (908) 541-0467 or the school office on 908-526-1339.

FROM THE PASTOR: “Love is patient, love is kind. It is not jealous, it is not pompous.”

(1 Corinthians 13:4)

Are you jealous? Do you focus more on the things that other people have than on the gifts that God has given to you? Are you pompous? Do you seek to acquire more possessions to impress others? At times we are all guilty of these human weaknesses. Yet as stewards we are called to love God above all other things – striving always to be less jealous, less pompous and more giving. Fr. Stan
