3RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Our readings today underscore the importance of listening to God's word proclaimed to us at our liturgical celebrations. The first reading from Nehemiah describes the situation of the Chosen People after their return from exile.
They are hearing God's word proclaimed publicly for perhaps the first time in their lives. And the Gospel shows Jesus in the synagogue, interpreting God's word for the people gathered there. As we enter into our celebration today, let us be particularly attentive to the voice of God in the proclamation of our readings.

When parents bring their children for baptism, the first thing in the ceremony that the priest or deacon asks them is, "What name have you given to your child?" Parents select the names they bestow on their children for a host of reasons: family tradition, personal meaning, a connection to admired individuals, the beauty of how it sounds, or a name's particular meaning are but a few. Even if a child later on chooses to be known by some other name, most often it will be a variation of the original given by the parents. Elizabeth can become Betty or Liza; Robert turns into Bob; Jason shortens to Jase; and Caroline can be known as Carly.

Scripture scholars are divided on whether the person named at the beginning of Luke's Gospel is a particular individual, or whether he stands for all those who would hear the story of Jesus. His name, Theophilus, means one who loves God, so the name could be just as likely allegorical as actual. In any event, the story of Jesus that Luke organized and wrote is directed toward someone whose very name suggests a connection to the divine. The good news of Jesus is intended for one who loves God.

That does not mean to exclude every Tom, Dick, and Harry (or Barb, Jane, and Mary for that matter). No matter what our first name actually means, as a son or daughter of God in baptism, we are all "Theophilus," that is, lovers of God. The story of Jesus-the welcome he gives to the poor and the outcast, the Spirit that is poured out on him and on his followers, the journey to Jerusalem where the fulfillment of the Father's will is accomplished-is our story. And as we listen to the Gospel from Luke in the year ahead we can pray that we become ever more lovers of God, who calls us all by name.

Christ the King School Basket Auction Tickets

Admission tickets for our Pot 'O Gold Basket Auction on March 1st are available for sale in the Christ the King School office starting 2/4/13. You can purchase tickets any day that school is open by calling 908-526-1339 and arranging a pickup time.

Tickets are $20. This admission entitles the bearer to one sheet of 25 raffle tickets for non-premium prizes, the door prize drawings, and refreshments. PLEASE PURCHASE ONLY ONE ADMISSION TICKET PER PERSON ATTENDING. Purchasing more than one ticket does not gain you anything; (an admission ticket costs more than the free raffle sheet), and it eliminates a spot for another guest. The auction is a LIMITED SALES event. As in the past, we anticipate that it will be sold out prior to March 1st, with no ticket availability at the door!

We are again offering pre-event sales of discounted value packages of basket raffle sheets. Package A includes 2 non-premium sheets and 1 premium sheet for $25; and Package B includes 2 premium sheets and 1 non-premium sheet for $30. These tickets will be available for pick-up at the auction. Additional raffle sheets (for both premium and non-premium prizes) and packages, grand prize tickets, and 50/50 tickets will be sold at the auction. Advance sale packages must be purchased by Friday, February 15th to allow time for processing. After that date, all packages will need to be purchased the night of the event.

Donations for the auction are also still being accepted. Any questions, please contact Stacy Snell at (908) 541-0467 or the school office on 908-526-1339.
