3RD SUNDAY OF LENT

Today, as our Lenten season moves into its third week, we hear the Gospel story of the fig tree that is spared for one more season to see if it will bear fruit. One lesson we can learn is that God is always willing to give us another chance, but for our part, we must be receptive to God's nurturing. So let us resolve today to continue or perhaps resume or even start our Lenten disciplines so they may bear fruit in our spiritual lives.

A few years ago a friend of mine was diagnosed with a malignant brain tumor. Bill was a good man, very kind and generous with his time and his talents. And although he didn't have a lot of money (he was a teacher by profession) he was always ready to help out in any way that he could. As a middle-aged man, Bill was fairly healthy otherwise, and his diagnosis came as a shock to his family and friends. Most of us were left asking, "Why should such a cruel thing happen to such a kind man?"

This is the very question Jesus confronts in the Gospel this weekend when he deals with tragic events in his time. A tower collapses and eighteen people are killed. Is this punishment because they were the most evil people in Jerusalem? Some Galileans are slaughtered while offering sacrifice. Have they somehow offended God, and so are now being called to account for their wickedness? Jesus says that the evil that befell them makes them no guiltier than anyone else. And, by implication, makes the rest of us no less guilty!

Our sense of justice likes to have the punishment fit the crime. We expect that there will be specific consequences for individual actions, each wrongful act punished on its own merits. But the problem of evil is much greater than personal sinfulness. While we each have responsibility for our individual sins, we also carry the weight of human sinfulness. As Catholics, we call that original sin, but whatever title it is given, it is the recognition that there is at work in the world a greater sin than that which each of us may be personally guilty of. It is the sin of our race. Bill did not get cancer because he was a bad man. But illness, war, hatred, and every other evil are the things from which we seek deliverance. It is good that God is patient with us, like the gardener with the fig tree.

Recently the Knights of Columbus #6573, concluded "A Biblical Walk Through The Mass", and all the parishioners came away with a renewed appreciation of how our Mass has such grounded roots in the Bible. The next set of classes will start Thursday April 4th, 2013. First we'll repeat a class we had last year, "A Quick Journey Through The Bible"(5-6:30pm). This will show how we can get the narrative story of Salvation- from Genesis to Jesus, in eight weeks. The cost for materials is $20. Our second class will be on "The Gospel of Mathew" (7-8:30pm). This Gospel has been called the "Teaching" Gospel. It will run for twelve weeks, and the cost for materials is $25. Come with us as we continue our journey through our faith. For more info on the classes and times please contact Anthony Scarpantonio - ascarp@live.com or 917-494-8141.

FROM THE PASTOR: "A man had a fig tree growing in his vineyard, and he came out looking for fruit on it but did not find any. He said to the vinedresser, 'Cut it down.' But the vinedresser said, 'Leave it another year while I hoe around it and manure it; then perhaps it will bear fruit. If not, it shall be cut down.'" Luke 13:6-9

As the vinedresser cultivated the fig tree, stewards are also called to cultivate the talents of one another. The truth is that talents not used are lost to us and others. Fr. Stan
