5TH SUNDAY OF LENT

As we gather here today, let us take stock of how the Lenten season has gone for us so far. Perhaps we haven't done everything we had hoped we could do when Lent began. If we take today's liturgy to heart, we just might see that we can't do it alone. We need the help of our loving and merciful God, who opens up paths in even the most difficult terrain. Let us pray today for the grace of new determination, with God's help, to carry out our Lenten disciplines.

In the 2012 film Smashed, which won the US Dramatic Special Jury Prize for Independent Film Producing at the Sundance Film Festival, Mary Elizabeth Winstead plays Kate, a young wife who struggles to get sober. She and her husband (played by Aaron Paul) like having a good time. But when her partying spirals downward, Kate fears that her job as an elementary school teacher is at risk and she needs deal with her alcoholism. The film chronicles Kate's (and her husband's) attempts to achieve sobriety, even as she discovers that her past can deeply affect her future.

The woman in the Gospel is unexpectedly brought before Jesus today. She is exposed in front of everyone. Here she is, being confronted with shame, and sin, and all the condemnation that the indignant elders could heap upon her. Jesus points out to her accusers their own shortcomings, and in light of that, they all fade away. She is left before him alone, and he admonishes her to avoid sin in the future.

While alcoholism is understood to be a disease and not so much a moral failing, there is human suffering that can be fallout from such an affliction. That's why one of the Twelve Steps in Alcoholics Anonymous is to be willing to make amends to all persons that have been harmed. Making amends is also part of the sacrament of penance. When confessing our sins, there is the expectation that we will have to make some sort of restitution. That's what real penance is: an amendment, that is, a correction of one's life. We've spent part of Lent examining our lives and assessing where we have failed in living according to God's will. Like Kate in the movie, maybe we've had a sudden moment of insight. Or maybe we've just come to the realization of what we need to correct. Now is the time for us to confess, to do penance, and to be reconciled to God and neighbor.

Recently the Knights of Columbus #6573, concluded "A Biblical Walk Through The Mass", and all the parishioners came away with a renewed appreciation of how our Mass has such grounded roots in the Bible. The next set of classes will start Thursday April 4th, 2013. First we'll repeat a class we had last year, "A Quick Journey Through The Bible"(5-6:30pm). This will show how we can get the narrative story of Salvation- from Genesis to Jesus, in eight weeks. The cost for materials is $20. Our second class will be on "The Gospel of Mathew" (7-8:30pm). This Gospel has been called the "Teaching" Gospel. It will run for twelve weeks, and the cost for materials is $25. Come with us as we continue our journey through our faith. For more info on the classes and times please contact Anthony Scarpantonio - ascarp@live.com or 917-494-8141.

Physician-Assisted Suicide – What is at Stake?

Did you know? New Jersey is poised to become the fourth state with legalized physician- assisted suicide. Most states (and most countries) believe that legalizing physician- assisted suicide would place in great jeopardy those who are suffering and vulnerable. Oppose the NJ Death with Dignity Act (A3328/S2259).

FROM THE PASTOR: "I have come to rate all as loss in the light of the surpassing knowledge of my Lord Jesus Christ. For his sake I have forfeited everything; I have accounted all else rubbish so that Christ may be my wealth." Philippians 3:7-8

St. Paul's knowledge of Christ redefined the true meaning of wealth. A steward, like St. Paul, understands Christ as the most valuable gift of all.
