7TH SUNDAY OF EASTER

As the end of our fifty-day celebration of the season of Easter approaches, the Church presents us with Jesus' Last Supper prayer for his disciples and Saint Stephen's prayer for his persecutors. As baptized Christians, we know that we are descendants of the first disciples, charged with proclaiming Jesus' message and also experiencing the consequences of being faithful witnesses. Let us praise and thank God today for the graces given us in Jesus' great prayer for his disciples.

Parents of young children spend a lot of time teaching them manners. It is part of the socialization process in which three-, four-, and five-year-olds learn to come outside of themselves. They begin to recognize that there are others in the world, and that unlike in their infancy when all attention was focused on them, they now discover that they must interact with others who also have a claim on the social order. By teaching young children not only the words, but also the concepts of "please" and "thank you," parents assist their youngsters in finding a place in society. Children learn that they need to share, that not everything belongs to them. They discover that they must interact with others to get things to work properly. "Please" and "thank you" acknowledges that outsiders also have rights.

All this brings us to Sunday's Gospel. There are only a few places in the New Testament in which we actually hear Jesus pray. The Gospel today is one of those. As he addresses the Father he prays not only for the disciples gathered with him at the Last Supper, but he also prays for us. He asks that we may be one and that we may be brought to perfection. Across two thousand years of time, Jesus is asking his Father to take care of us today!

"Please" and "thank you" are key words in prayer. They are actually part of three of the four traditional forms of prayer. Petition (asking for ourselves) and Intercession (asking on behalf of others) are "please." A prayer of thanksgiving is, of course, "thank you." The fourth type of prayer is adoration or praise. In his prayer, Jesus is interceding for us with his Father. It is the kind of prayer we can emulate, getting us out of ourselves as we ask God to be attentive to the needs of so many others in this world.

I would like to thank all of the parishioners from Christ the King & Sacred Heart and Martha Eckert for participating in the "Naming our Parish: Part 1" meeting. Part 2 will take place on Thursday, May 23, 2013 at 7-9PM. Three names will be submitted to the Bishop by June 15, 2013 from which, ultimately, he will select our new name.

Dziękujemy wszystkim Parafianom a także pani Marcie Eckert, którzy wzięli udział w pierwszej części spotkania dotyczącego nazwy nowej parafii. Część druga odbędzie się 23 maja 2013 r., czwartek, 7-9PM. Trzy propozycje zostaną do 15 czerwca przesłane do Ks. Biskupa, który wybierze jedną z nich.

CORPUS CHRISTI PROCESSION

This year, on the Feast of Corpus Christi (June 2nd), our procession will again take place from Sacred Heart Church down Main Street to Christ the King Church. The 7:00AM and 10AM Masses will be cancelled but the intentions scheduled for those Masses will be celebrated at the 8:00AM Mass.

The procession will take place immediately following the 8:00AM Mass. 11:30 AM Mass will take place as usual. All children who received First Communion and Confirmation this year are to take part. Please wear your First Communion attire and Confirmation robe. Children are to be in the auditorium at 7:45AM. Please mark you calendars to be present for this celebration.

FROM THE PASTOR: "...do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid." JOHN 14:27

When we let the daily pressures of life trouble us, we begin to believe that we are responsible for taking care of everything. This causes us to frantically cling to our time and treasure. Yet, Jesus tells us not to be troubled or afraid. Take a deep breath, pray and place your trust in God. When you do, you will be a better steward of all that God has placed in your care. Fr. Stan
