OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, KING OF THE UNIVERSE

As we gather today at God's invitation, we celebrate Christ our King. At a time when governments come under more suspicion and scrutiny than ever, applying a temporal title to our Lord and Savior might not seem wise. But this feast was founded as a reaction to global political upheaval in the twentieth century, as a reminder that Christ calls us beyond all earthly rule to a higher allegiance. Let us reflect today on who is king in our life.

Americans celebrate Thanksgiving Day this Thursday. This week will be one of the busiest for travel. Local news channels will broadcast stories about Thanksgiving meals and also about the poor who will be served by others. The president will pardon a turkey. Stores will gear up for Black Friday sales and a big shopping weekend. Financial markets in the United States will be closed down Thursday and have shortened hours on Friday. The collision of sentiments of gratitude and crass commercialism on a single weekend can make for a certain incongruence in one's experience of these few days.

As we celebrate the feast of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe, we are presented with a seemingly huge incongruity in the Gospel that is proclaimed this year. We celebrate a great King, and in our human experience when we hear of a king we think of fine robes, sumptuous feasts, grand castles, and scores of courtiers and servants. The Gospel today gives us a broken man, abandoned by his friends, condemned, reviled by a criminal, and hanging on a cross. This is the King we honor today.

Thank God that we can live with a certain amount of dissonance in our lives. It is what allows us to hold in balance seemingly contradictory notions, like the fact that a crucified man is our Lord and King. One of the criminals crucified with Jesus asks that he be remembered when Jesus comes into his kingdom. That plea, uttered near the moment of his death, has become a prayer for Christians through the centuries, because we believe that the death of Jesus was not the end. We believe that his death was just the beginning, ushering in a new kingdom, and promising a new life that can be ours if we submit ourselves to the rule of this universal King. The promise Christ makes to the repentant thief is the promise he makes to us: we will be with him in paradise.

Thanksgiving Prayer

Almighty God,
You bring forth bountiful food from the earth
that our loved ones may never grow hungry.
For this, we give thanks.
You give us families that meet at this time to reunite and be one with each other.
For this, we give thanks.

You have let us live in a land that has unbridled opportunity and unparalleled freedoms.

For this, we give thanks.

For those who are hungry today, we pray for their fulfillment.

For families that are separated, we pray for their unity.

And for people who live in the midst of persecution, we pray for their deliverance.

We ask all these things through Christ, our ever-risen Lord.

Amen.

MERGER UPDATE CORNER

Merger Update November 24, 2013

SAVE THE DATE

New Parish Celebration January 4, 2014

Some parishioners believe that Christ the King Church will close on January 1, 2014. The Provisional Parish Council wants everyone to know that Christ the King will continue to serve as a worship site for all Catholics. Even though Christ the King Parish will merge with Sacred Heart Parish into Christ the Redeemer Parish in January, both current churches will continue to function and provide all liturgical ministries.

FROM THE PASTOR: “He delivered us from the power of darkness and transferred us to the kingdom of his beloved Son...” Col. 1:13

If we recognize Jesus as our King, then we must also recognize ourselves as His loyal subjects. As members of God’s kingdom we have an abundance of wonderful blessings. But we also have responsibilities. We must always use our gifts to help build up the kingdom. We must never forget that we are truly blessed to be called to serve the Greatest of Kings. Fr. Stan
