29TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

In the past few weeks, we have heard about such Christian virtues as faith, gratitude, generosity, and charity. This week we focus on persistence in prayer. While that may seem obvious to those of us who come to church regularly, our Lord nevertheless wants us to know that we can count on being heard if we maintain a constant connection to God. So let us be persistent in our prayer today, and pray for the grace to continue to build a strong relationship with God.

We have witnessed plenty of tragic events in our country's history. Very recent events, like the attacks on 9/11; Hurricane Katrina; the tornado through Joplin, Missouri; Super Storm Sandy; and plenty of other tragedies have affected wide swaths of the public. These events are so far-reaching, that almost everyone feels the impact. But these shattering events are no more devastating in their effects on the lives of individuals than the adversities that befall people each day: a diagnosis of cancer, a violent death in the family, a horrible accident, the loss of a job. Life's traumas can break into our own lives, or the lives of people we know, at any moment.

Jesus uses a curious example in the Gospel today. An unjust judge renders a helpful decision because of the incessant pestering of a widow. In the time of Jesus, widows were without recourse. They had no man to stand for them, so they were left to their own devices. The widow wears down the judge, who becomes fearful for his own well-being, unless he provides a just outcome.

We have seen it over and over again in our lives: when tragic events happen, people respond out of the goodness of their hearts. Whether it is a large-scale response as in the case of hurricanes or storms, or the compassionate outreach of a small group of neighbors and friends, in a time of need, it seems as though there is always someone who steps up to help. God is there too. We may not always be aware of God's presence, but he is with us in the darkest moments of life. Our prayer to God is not so much pestering an unjust judge (for God can never be unjust) as it is reminding ourselves that God is near to us. In the dark and difficult moments of our existence, God is there, and our prayer keeps us close to him.

Sharing Question

How do Peter's willingness to launch out, the miraculous catch of fish, and his leaving his nets behind to follow Jesus relate to your life or that of your parish?

Sharing Our Faith

What in faith do you share or hold in common with people for the other merging parishes or communities within the shared parish?

At this point in our transition, how can we answer the question "Who are we?" If asked that question a year from now, how do you hope to answer it?

FROM THE PASTOR: “...be persistent whether it is convenient or inconvenient...” 2 Timothy 4:2

It is not always convenient to be a good steward, especially when all the temptations of our busy and materialistic world get in the way. Yet, we must be persistent even when it is inconvenient. This persistence marks the true follower of Christ.

Fr. Stan
