EXPOSITION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT

Saturday
8:30 – 9:00 AM

Our Lady of Częstochowa Chapel

"But the tax collector stood off at a distance and would not even raise his eyes to heaven but beat his breast and prayed, 'O God, be merciful to me a sinner.' I tell you, the latter went home justified, not the former; for whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted."

- Lk 18:13-14

30TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Today we are gathered in prayer once again at God's invitation. It is our choice, Jesus tells us today, whether to pray from our hearts or for show. Let us take the time that we need today to search our hearts and find at least a small part of our inmost selves that we can offer up to God in prayer. This can be a first step, perhaps, in deepening our relationship with the God who loves each of us so profoundly.

Many people will be celebrating Halloween this week, often with costumes, parties, and trick-or-treating. This holy evening the night before All Saints' Day is a time to cast out evil and to frighten away the darkness. The light of the jack-o'-lanterns with their scary faces is meant to intimidate the evil that lurks around in the night as we march into the day celebrating the saints triumphant. While some people may get caught up in the exuberance of a holiday, reveling without a thought to the holy day that follows, Halloween is by virtue of its very name, a sacred night. The saints whom we honor are people who threw aside darkness so that they could live as sons and daughters of light, who never pretended to be anything other than children of God.

The parable that Jesus tells in the Gospel today presents us with two men, a Pharisee and a tax collector. The Pharisee is so convinced of his own righteousness that he doesn't hesitate to tell God how good a man he thinks himself to be. In the meantime, it is the tax collector who is aware of his own need for God's mercy because of his recognition of his own faults before God. Jesus points out that the man who acknowledged his sinfulness was the man who went home justified.

They didn't celebrate Halloween in the days of the Pharisee and the tax collector. But the Pharisee seemed ready to dress himself up in all kinds of virtue in an attempt to show his supposed righteousness. We may dress up on Halloween in some outlandish costume just for fun. But in our lives each day we really need to put on Christ. Like the saints, we wear our dignity as sons and daughters of God, acknowledging our faults, seeking God's help, and abandoning any evil that lures us away from holiness. Then we'll have a real Hallowed Evening!

MERGER UPDATE CORNER

Parish Merger Update October 27, 2013

The Provisional Parish Council has identified several spiritual benefits of the parish merger, beyond the obvious and more practical physical and financial benefits to be realized; they are:

1. The peace that results from a more perfect unity with Jesus Christ and one another.
2. Richer and more diverse liturgical experiences that invite and welcome all to a fuller and more active participation in the parish.
3. Broader opportunities to serve the poor and marginalized.
4. More opportunities for prayer.
5. Deeper spiritual relationships with God and each other.
6. Greater witness to the presence of the Holy Spirit at work in our lives.
7. More opportunities for all to explore and experience the Polish traditions and devotions.
8. Flexibility in selecting worship sites for attendance in daily and weekly Masses and special liturgical services.

As our new parish unfolds, many more spiritual benefits may be revealed. May Christ the Redeemer guide us on our spiritual journey of faith.

Unity in Christ: What Does it Mean

Philippians 2:1-4, In Full Accord and of One Mind

Sharing Question

What does it mean to you to be of "one mind" with other parishioners amidst the many changes taking place in your parish? What kind of "encouragement in Christ" do you most need at this time?

Sharing Our Faith

What are some devotions or expressions of our faith that could unite our communities? What parish traditions do we hope will be valued by parishioners from the other merging parishes?

FROM THE PASTOR: “...for whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted.” Luke 18:14

Do we exalt ourselves? We do if we think that we get credit for any of the good things in our lives. As stewards it is important that we remember that every good thing on this earth is a gift from God. We should be humbled by God’s abundant generosity. Our hearts should be filled with gratitude.
