22ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

As we gather on this Labor Day weekend, we are reminded at this Mass that God seeks out and upholds the lowly of this world. Our psalm refrain sings, "God, in your goodness, you have made a home for the poor," and our Gospel says, "The one who humbles himself will be exalted." Let us give praise and thanks to God today for all who labor, whatever their rank or position, and pray for all who need work. And let us pray for the grace of humility for ourselves.

There is a story that has been circulating about Pope Francis. Whether all the details are accurate is not as important as the overall meaning. As it is told, after his election Pope Francis returned to live at the Vatican guesthouse, which he has now made his home. He got up early one morning and opened the door of his room to find a Swiss Guard standing at attention. The pope asked the man how long he had been there and the guard responded, "All night, Holy Father." The pope brought out a chair and told the guard to sit down because he must be tired. When the guard responded that it was against the rules, the pope responded, "I'm the pope. Please sit." The guard uncomfortably took his seat, and the pope returned to his room. A few moments later, he came out with some bread and jam for the guard and wished him "Bon appétit!" before closing his bedroom door.

In this weekend's Gospel Jesus uses the example of dining with others to teach his disciples about life in the kingdom of God. He suggests that a person's sense of self-importance should not overtake the humbleness that characterizes the communal life of the kingdom. As citizens of God's realm there is only One who outranks everyone else, and that is the Lord.

People with power often get special places. The head table at a conference, meeting, or awards' banquet always has the "big shots" filling the seats. Political fundraisers have the highest ranking elected leaders sitting up front. In the Gospel, Jesus suggests that we be more realistic about ourselves. As the story about Pope Francis indicates, esteem comes not because we get the most revered place at table, but because we care about others. The command that Jesus gives to invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, and the blind still binds us in charity today.

Prayer of Remembrance

September 11, 2001

Jesus, beloved Savior, in remembering these terrible events, we recognize our great need for Your guidance and protection.

We have painfully learned that our country is vulnerable and that violence can disrupt both individuals and nations.

We pray then for healing for all the people whose lives were shattered in the attacks.

We pray for wisdom for our national leaders.

We pray for peace, for our country and our world.

Jesus, beloved Savior, as we remember, hold us in Your loving hands.

NEXT WEEKEND, SEPTEMBER 6 & 7

THE SECOND COLLECTION taken up after Holy Communion will be for the Air Conditioning donation. Please be as generous as you can to help defray the cost of keeping our buildings cool and comfortable during the hot summer months.

FROM THE PASTOR: “Rather, when you hold a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind; blessed indeed will you be because of their inability to repay you.” Luke 14:14

We have a difficult time with the concept of giving without expecting something in return. Even when we give to charity we often want something in return – a raffle ticket, a dinner, or a chance to play golf. Yet, as Christian stewards we need to remember that the true reward for our giving awaits us in heaven. Fr. Stan
